	19-8-2002 Shri Ramakant Pandey, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Ranbir Singh, Govt. Adv. for the State. According to the petitioner it is mentioned in Annexure P-1, that the services of the petitioner has been dispensed with but neither any proceedings were drawn up nor an order of termination has been served on him. In that view of the matter, the question of entertaining this writ petition, apart from the fact that the alternative remedy is available, does not arise at this stage. Accordingly this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Gram Panchayat, Sarsiva, (respondent No.3) that in case as reflected in the Annexure P-1 the services of the petitioner has been dispensed with, a copy of that order be served on him promptly. With the aforesaid direction this writ petition stands disposed of. Consequently, I.A.No.1701/2002 also stands disposed of. It goes without saying that if any amount is due to the petitioner up to date of the termination, that should be paid to him.	Sd/- P.C.Naik Judge
